This book is only useful in the sense that it clearly articulates societal assumptions about gender. And to a certain extent, all these polls and what men think, are so helpful to us women. This perfectly explains Prophet Muhammad's saying that women would make a majority in hell because they are unappreciative towards their husbands. I really found a lot of interesting. I also appreciated how she ended the book. It's not your fault if you lack self-discipline. I plan on talking to my DH at some point about the book, but I am waiting until we are on more solid ground. You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. My husband and I are stuck in a cycle of lack of respect on my part and lack of love. Choose a language for shopping. But this gave me a deep insight to my husband's needs and how he is hardwired to respond.
