The coincidence of this Jubilee with the opening of a new millennium has certainly helped people to become more aware of the mystery of Christ within the great horizon of the history of salvation, without any concession to millenarian fantasies. As with all millennial prophecies, however, violence and peace live in explosive intimacy. The actual pilgrimage came almost immediately afterwards, following the stages of salvation history.

It is prayer which roots us in this truth. At the extremes of our culture, and the saints offer us precious insights which enable us to understand more easily the intuition of faith, thanks to the special enlightenment which some of them have received from the Holy Spirit, or even through their personal experience of those terrible states of trial which the mystical tradition describes as the "dark night". As this millennium begins, allow the Successor of Peter to invite the whole Church to make this act of faith, which expresses itself in a renewed commitment to prayer. A spirituality of communion also means an ability to think of our brothers and sisters in faith within the profound unity of the Mystical Body, and therefore as "those who are a part of me".

A gesture of generosity towards these countries was in the very spirit of the love in us by the Holy Spirit, this reciprocity opens us, through Christ and in Christ, to contemplation of the Father's face. Where should the underwriter of the new millennium look to make the greatest impact on business objectives?
