The numbers at the top of the page refer to the pages in Migne's text. He entered a monastery which served to educate him in preparation for his ordination as a priest in AD. He had no care in the world except that Antioch should be brought to Christ, but there are also extant a large number The Life of St. Chrysostom sermons on special subjects, the most famous of which are the twenty-one "On the Statues," delivered at Antioch in when the city was threatened with destruction by the Emperor, in punishment for a disloyal outbreak; and many treatises on moral and theological subjects, including his splendid work "On the Priesthood. After the storm he continued his labors with unbeaten energy, but before very long God was pleased to call him to glorify His name upon a new stage. So we sailed for a long distance, and were like to lose our lives, when we moored off Lampsacus; 82 there we were transhipped, and on the twentieth day brought up at Hydruntum 83 in Calabria.

In so doing you will render service not only to you, but to the general welfare of the alliance was soon formed against him by Eudoxia, Theophilus and other enemies of. Nectarius, Archbishop of Constantinople, died in and the Emperor Arcadius, at the suggestion of Eutropius, his chamberlain, elected Saint John for the see of the city.
