Fortunately for Hawaii, the spirit of the times has set its face like a flint against this sort of sensation-mongering, and if a Miinchausen were now to claim the public ear he would have the searchlight of scientific investigation turned upon him as pitilessly as it was done in the case of an alleged claim to the discovery of the north pole. As for Na-maka-o-ka-ha'i, she retired from the battle exultant, thinking that her enemy Pele was done for: Erupt, Kahiki, with lightning flash!
