I've also met some Vietnam veterans who have never spoken about their military service. I highly recommend this to anyone who is spiritually oriented, who is a peace activist, who works with veterans or other traumatized population. Although many veterans are from the Second World War, that figure is falling with a corresponding growth in those who served in more recent conflicts such as East Timor, Iraq and Afghanistan. To provide a sound education, based in the liberal arts. In this raw and moving memoir, Claude Thomas describes his service in Vietnam. To accept the inevitable suffering of life, he says we must practice mindfulness, which he defines as:
