Thus, it mirrors the impossibility of imagining the promises of a future in the ruins of the recent past, representing in this way a model of a failed utopia. The homecoming of a monumental element of architecture renders this as an ancient endeavour, while the characteristics of the journey integrate it into the current social and economic context. Yet Politically Today doesn't indulge in nostalgia for a period that most of the artists presented in the programs hasn't experienced.

An old blind woman threads an infinite yarn, while her house floats in the sea. we face different modus operandi in which audiovisual artists investigate our recent past in order to question the present times.
