Steinberg's most personal essay is on Sir Michael Tippett's oratorio A Child of Our Time whose genesis lies in the infamous Kristallnacht of 1938 and whose structure is based on Handel's Messiah. Emerging out of Steinberg's careers as musicologist, music critic, and symphony program annotator, this volume is engaging to read and informed by superb, up-to-date scholarship and broad musical knowledge of live performances, recordings, study, and personal communication. His Life and Music.

Still, this is ostensibly the first listener's guide to choral music - and a nice addition to The Story of Music. The title should be at least 4 characters long.
