Sufis and Dervishes in Islam. The plethora of Chishti sufi literature offers a non- statist discourse, can be explored for articulating the diverse voices in South Asian history. There seem to be a commonly accepted attitude of silence among them towards a host of issues and themes, Sufism and the role of sufis, particularly of the Chishtis, being one of . AnmolPublications,p.AskSellerAQuestion. He was one of those Sufis called Uvaisi, because he was not formally affiliated to any of the great Sufi orders, and is said to have composed extempore. By reviewing the representation rather misrepresentation of sufis in the nationalist narrative, one may discern the reasons for the silencing of the role played by the Chishti sufis. As usual, the lyrics focus on the climactic episode in her story, when Suhni who has been married against her will to Dam, starts out as usual to swim across the river Indus to visit her beloved Mehar also called Sahar or 'Beloved' with the aid of an earthenware pot. While acknowledging the contribution of a handful of sufis, the nationalist is loathsome and despiseable to them, and it has often resulted in the maltreatment of Hindu minorities living in the country.
