As a form of historical novel, this work draws on recorded information about Digging to Indochina:A Novel archaeology, real people and real events. She eventually leaves him, trying to start a new life on her own, but she ultimately swallows her pride and goes home - several months pregnant. Tragedy soon rears its ugly head again in some dramatic ways, leaving emotional bridges destroyed as quickly as their foundations had begun to be laid.

Sheeventuallyleaveshim,tryingtostartanewlifeonherown,butsheultima Some caution is therefore needed in accepting the historical canvas. This enables the author to present data very selectively.
