The intro essay is a banger. Instead of the thematic cohesiveness of Capitalist Realism, one really feels that this text was thrown together by cobbling old essays from Mark's blog and trying to link them via the theme of Hauntology. But as the interview progressed, I could tell that significant changes had occurred. In fact, I think it contained more insight and just plain good writing than the rest of the essays combined, a Don't be fooled, this is just a reprint. And he now had a more sure hope through the witness of the Spirit! Is League of Gentleman hauntological?

What I was less impressed by were the articles on Burial and James Blake. Hauntology to Read Currently Reading Read. This new book is mostly a compilation of previously published musings on popular, and not-so-popular, cultural phenomena - from underground U.
