They came across as hollow caricatures of various white trash types "slutty, foul-mouthed teen", "flaky, ineffective religious-freak mother", "sensitive, probably gay baby of the family". Hand's novel "Illyria" will be published next spring. I also really enjoyed that the book takes place around Christmas - and I think Mr.

There are a couple of sentences here and there that are funny, but most of it is so. Everything about it rang true. This not being the fault of the author, as I often over-obligate my mind, I give four stars to anything that makes me laugh out loud.

Beth first to discover new talent! Or is it because I don't really 'know' his other works so this is something fairly fresh to me and I don't have a lot of comparison?
