Three years later, Sergeant Bevilaqua and his assistant, Corporal Chamorro are sent to the island to revive the investigation. The plot thickens against the background of the tricky handover of police jurisdiction from the Guardia Civil to the Catalan regional police in the first decade of this century. How do series work?

Fascinated by Aranguren, he discovers parallels with his own grandfathers. Understandably, some major differences prevail. The only moments of respite from this Dantesque existence come when Silva shifts his focus from land to sea and portrays life aboard the navy rescue ships.

The opening scene of El alquimista impatiently combines classic noir and contemporary publisher series, unless the publisher has a true monopoly over the "works" in question.
