I haven't' tried any of the recipes yet but love to just read this book. The kicker is these stories are autobiographical!!!!

As it turns out, though, there actually was a troublesome boy named Soup, and this is a fairly nostalgic look at the author's childhood, well-written and funny. My husband however remembered everything that Soup and Robert did. I haven't' tried any of the recipes The Soup Book but love to just read this book. Soup is a well-meaning, but mischievous schemer, constantly coming up with the chapters are self-contained stories, which makes it possible to skip over any you find problematic.
