Mark Lawrence's debut novel tells a tale of blood and treachery, magic and brotherhood and paints a compelling and brutal, and sometimes beautiful, picture of an exceptional boy on his journey toward manhood and the throne. A pandemic has eliminated anyone without 0 negative blood.

Published August 15th by Abaddon Books Rebellion first published In a rather spectacular show of lunacy, he runs away from home and takes up with a group of killers, eventually becoming their leader. Here is the rape scene that people are saying never happened. Hi, these are all the surviving military powers, and they're here to fuck all this shit up, in the name of God and Country and reasons!

Who will be the guys in the black hat then? Published September 18th by Abaddon

The Prisoner of Brenda The novel was well received.
