This was a thoroughly entertaining read. Now, if only he can remember to keep his real identity a secret and not fall in love with her himself...

I do really like Ezra and hope that he gets his own story one day. Ok, let's stop. The young princess is afraid and all alone, and as the months pass by and her attempts to escape become more desperate, she begins to lose hope that anyone will come to save. Want to Read saving... So he finally relents, giving her a potion to grow legs of her own so she can experience the world above the water. Explore the Home Gift Guide. I LOVE her books! Why would he risk it all for one girl?
