Resurrection by Jacob Hoye and Karolyn Ali Designed as a companion piece to the documentary film of the same name, this highly unconventional posthumous memoir is functionally a curated exhibit of Tupac Amaru Shakur's short life. The insight she had about her experiences was admirable. Her life is unique, for sure. Fun Home in concert with Craig Thompson's Blanket Jan 24, Glenda rated it it was ok. You probably remember childhood as a series of vignettes informing you of what it felt like to be alive in a fresh new world. It was a courageous book to write and for that I admire. It related to a lot of her experiences. It was a courageous book to write and for that I admire. It was perfect timing.
